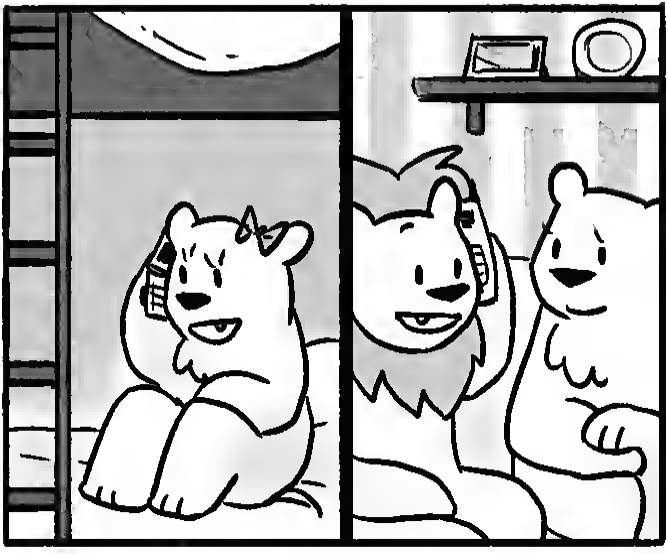
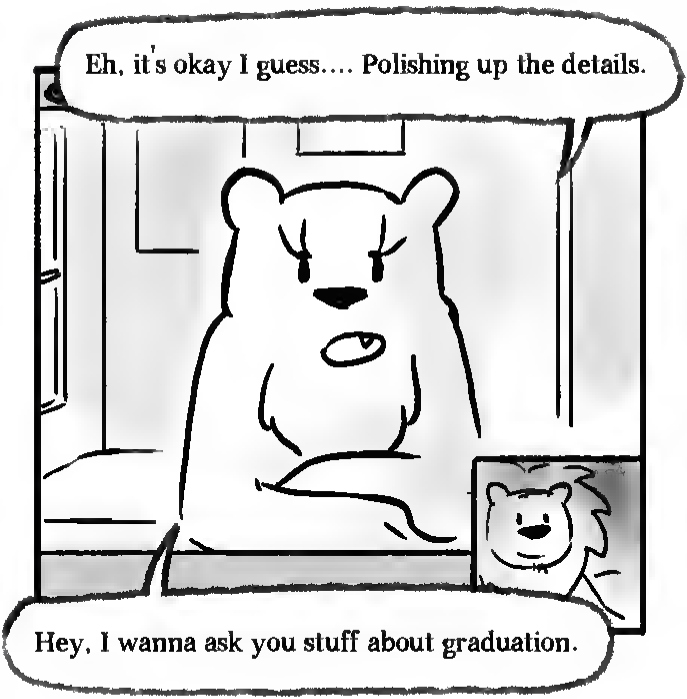
I'm glad I become a better big brother over the years.



It's amazing how much she changes as she grows up.



Leona asked how I prepared for graduation when I was in university, so I shared my experience with her.

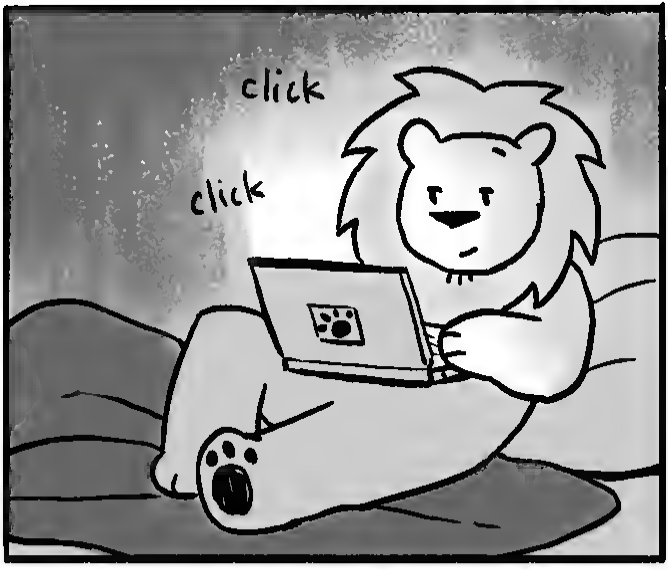
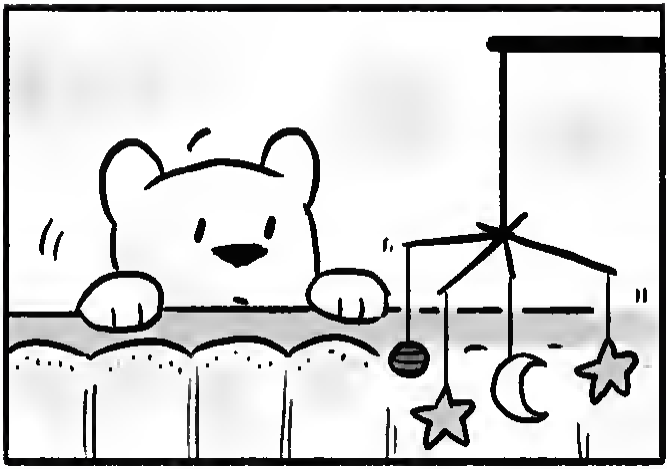
I got accepted by my first choice university!

WAHHHH



Now, she has become a beautiful and mature lioness who is cool and well-mannered.



We always played together when we were small.

But, sometimes she was really annoying.

She loved to be a princess, cries easily, and always wanted to have whatever I got in my hands.

No matter how much we changed,
she will always be my cute little sister.

How about you?
Sure, I can take a week off from work.
Great!
I'm proud of you, Leona!

ROAR STREET JOURNAL

Of course we will attend Leona's graduation ceremony.
Oh yeah, so it's the three of us! I will sponsor our trip!
Oh Leo, you don't have to do that.

No problem! Let's start planning!

But...she is always my cute little sister.

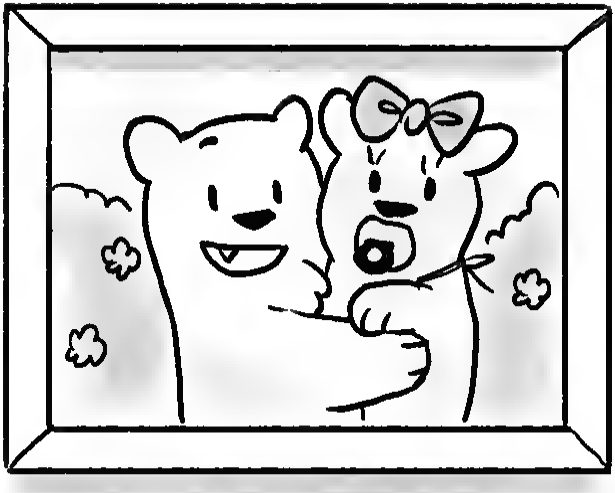
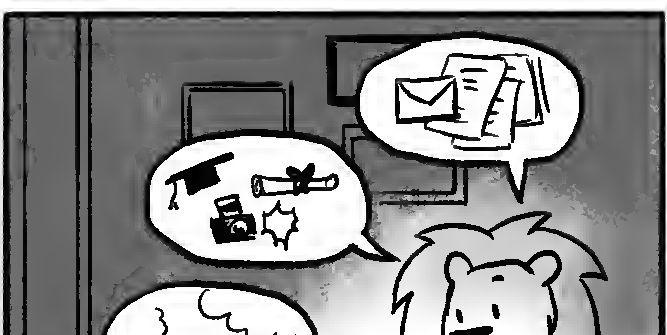
I want that balloon!
I WANT IT!!!
NO!



This is my little sister, Leona.

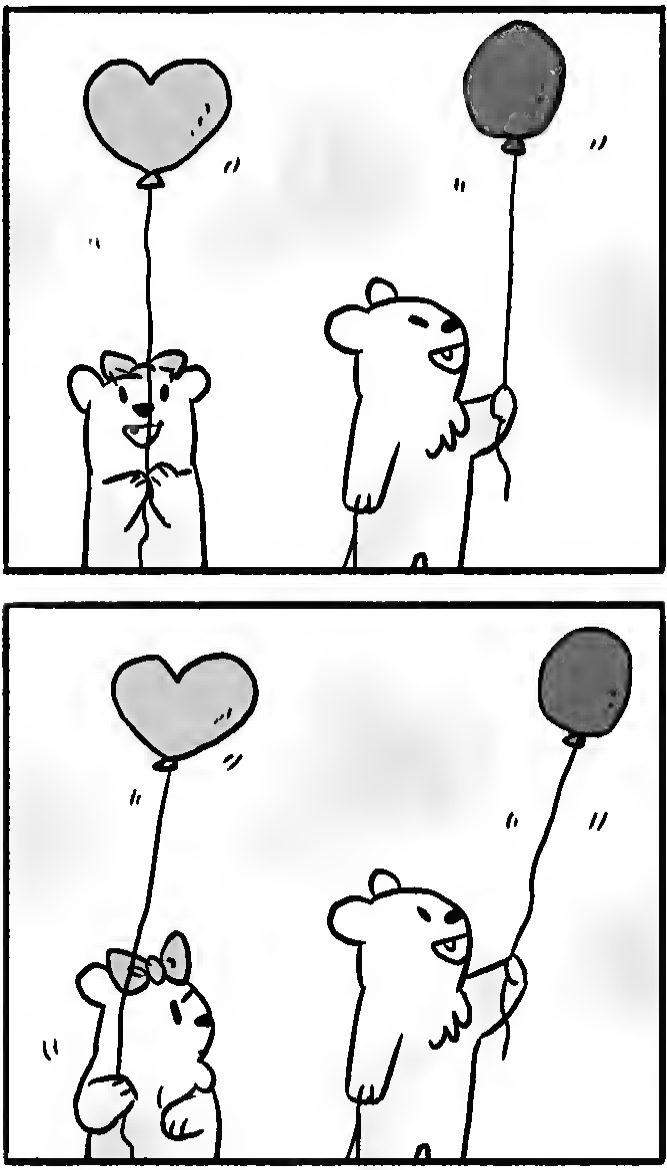
She is several years younger than me.

Why did you make Leona cry again?
I did not! And she ruined my castle!



As we grew up, Leona went to study in a boarding school and we spent much less time together.

Thanks. Are mum and dad free next month? I hope they can come to the graduation ceremony.
I think they are free... I'll ask them tomorrow.



I wasn't a very nice big brother, and my mum would scold me every time I fight with my sister.

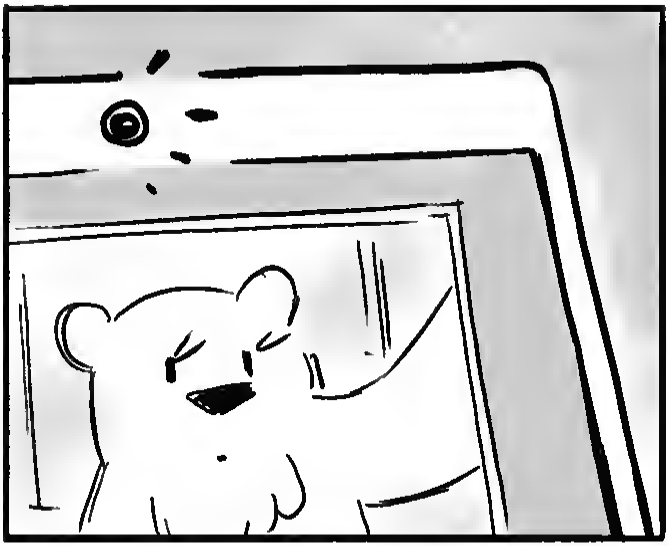
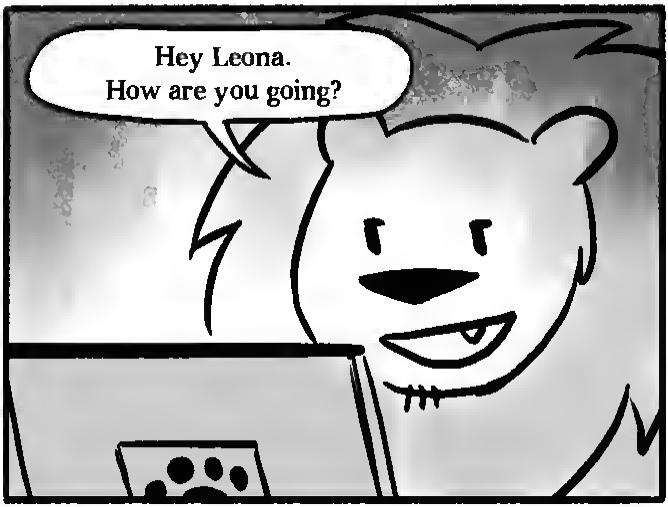
We chat and catch up with each other from time to time, and we didn't fight anymore.





Hey Leona.
How are you going?
